(New York) August 30, 2013 – The National September 11 Memorial & Museum today announced a membership program for the 9/11 Memorial Museum, which has a planned opening in the spring of 2014.

The inaugural program will help support the Memorial and Museum with meaningful benefits for individuals of all ages, families and businesses.

“It is our hope New Yorkers, Americans and people from around the world will join us in honoring the victims and preserving the past by becoming inaugural members of the Museum,” 9/11 Memorial President Joe Daniels said. “After opening the Memorial on the 10-year anniversary of September 11, establishing the Museum continues our commitment to honor the nearly 3,000 men, women and children killed on one of the darkest days in American history.”

All membership, donations and sponsorships are dedicated to sustaining the National September 11 Memorial & Museum, as well as developing programming and exhibits that further its mission. For more information on the membership program, visit: www.911memorial.org/become-911-memorial-museum-member

The public can save 10 percent on all individual membership levels by signing up as an inaugural member before April 1, 2014. Corporate memberships are also available.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL SEPTEMBER 11 MEMORIAL & MUSEUM

The National September 11 Memorial & Museum is the not-for-profit corporation created to oversee the design, fundraising, programming, and operations of the Memorial and Museum at the World Trade Center. The Memorial and Museum are located on eight of the 16 acres of the World Trade Center site. The Memorial was dedicated on the 10th anniversary of the 9/11 attacks and is now open to the public.

The Memorial remembers and honors the 2,983 people who were killed in the horrific attacks of September 11, 2001 and February 26, 1993. The design, created by Michael Arad and Peter Walker, consists of two reflecting pools formed in the footprints of the original Twin Towers and a plaza of trees. The Museum will display monumental artifacts linked to the events of 9/11, while presenting intimate stories of loss, compassion, reckoning, and recovery that are central to telling the story of the 2001 and 1993 attacks and the aftermath. It will communicate key messages that embrace both the specificity and the universal implications of the events of 9/11; document the impact of those events on individual lives, as well as on local, national, and international communities; and explore the continuing significance of these events for our global community.
